Get right!

[Primeira Parte]

Last time, I was hanging by a thread
Trying to say I'm not but I'm in it over my head
That's when I figured out where it led
Beginning to realize that you put me over the edge
[Pré-Refrão]

Your truth's not rigid, your rules aren't fair
The dark's too vivid, the light's not there
I start to give in, but I can't bear
To put it all behind, I run into it blind like

[Refrão]

Two faced
Caught in the middle
Caught in the middle

Too late
Counting to zero
Counting to zero

You should have recogniz?d
It's too late for choosing sides

Two faced
Caught in th? middle
Caught in the middle
Two faced!
[Segunda Parte]

Last time, you told me it wasn't true
And pointing every finger at things that you didn't do
So that's why I kept missing the clues
And never realized that the one that did it was you
[Pré-Refrão 2]

Your truth's not rigid, your rules aren't fair
The dark's too vivid, the light's not there
I start to give in, but I can't bear
To put it all behind, I run into it blind like
