

Lisa Hannigan - Fall

```
Tom: Eb
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  all our running heeeeeey
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     C)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  C
     (com acordes na forma de Capostraste na 3ª casa
Intro: C Em C Em
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   [Verse]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       and we'll seize the captain's wheel [Verse]
                                                                                     Em
     hide your horses, hold your tongue a mutiny we've come to feel
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Em
hang the rich and spare the young and well, the rainman's gone from view Em
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        С
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  with everything we thought to do who drained the spirits from the jars % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right) \left
                                                                            C
    hop the fences, steal the cars
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  oh the devil won't have me
                                                                C
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               C
   run on fumes and from the law i wonder who will, i wonder who will
                                           C
    and burn for us right through the fall
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  all our running is a crawl
C Em C Em
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  and burns for us right through the fall harbour ladies call your name
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           G F Am
brush your hair like it could be tamed
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  all our running heeeeey
                                                                                                        Em
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        C
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              G F Am
    hitch their dresses past their knees
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   all our running heeeeey
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  all our running heeeeeey
spill them to the floor like keys
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  C
    they swing the bridges, one and all
and burn for us right through the fall
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      all our running
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Fm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      all our running [Chorus]
                                                                     G F Am
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Em
all our running heeeeeey
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      all our running
                            C G F Am
all our running heeeeeey
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Fm Fm
                                                                              G F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  END
```

Acordes

