```
G                             C
One thought has me turning back
   G                    D7
a dozen point the other way
G
We act upon desire
   C
to each a hand for hire
      G         D7         G
and patience isn't worth the wait

C                     G
You've got knives in your eyes
                C                    G
You would be happy not to change your mind
Em                 A7
I can't defend you truly
         D7          C7              D7
When I worry about smoke instead of putting out the fire
                     C
And if we work it out
G        D7
Chances abound
                      Em (7ª casa)
We'd be standing our ground
                      C
For no one's better sake
G              D7
(better say) goodbye
                (G-C-G-D7 )
What are we waiting for? (x6)
G  C  G                 D7          G
Hum... What are we waiting for?

G                 C
How faint might that light become
   G              D7
in focus but at miles away?
   G
Although my position
just gives you amunnition
