

Little Mix - Weird People

We're gonna get weird all night
 (com acordes na forma de
                                             G)
                                                                I said now let's get weird all night

When I was just a little kid, I was sitting on the garden wall
                                                               Weird people on the dance floor
(Oh, get off the wall)
                                                                We're just doing what we came to do
Well, I must've bumped my head 'cause I don't dance the same
                                                                'Cause we're all weird people and we love it
no more
(Oh, fell off the wall)
                                                                Don't let them other suckers hate on you
And now I step out of the crowd and I party on the other side
(Oh, the other side)
                                                                 'Cause we're all weird people and we're shaking
And ain't no uptight sucker gonna tell me how to live my life
                                                                From the basement to the roof
(I'm living my life)
                                                                                                         C
                                                                You know the people on the bus and the people on the street

                                                                I ain't doing nothing wrong, baby, I'm just feeling myself
'Cause we're all weird people and we love it
                                                                I'm just gonna twerk it out like I ain't afraid for my health
Don't let them other suckers hate on you

I see a slick city boy with his fellas hanging by the bar
(Oh, get off the bar)
                                                                We're just doing what we came to do

He got the money and the Benz but it don't mean a thing at all 'Cause we're all weird people and we love it
(Oh, nothing at all)
                                                                Don't let them other suckers hate on you
Well, mister, let me tell you this, you can get a little weird
                                                                'Cause we're all weird people and we're shaking
for free
(Oh, get it for free)
