Lizzy McAlpine - Drunk, Running
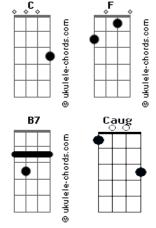

```
                    tom:
                     C
Intro:  F

F
What did you mean when you said that
Am       G           F
You were sober now?
F                               Am
Caught you in bed with a Red Bull vodka
              G
Two weeks out

F
No one stops you
Am    G                   F
Nobody takes it from your hand
F
Even when you
Am        G          F
Break your leg drunk, running
F
Someone ought to
Am     G            Dm
Hold you to your words
        Em    F
Say: I love you
F
And then drink it backwards

( F  Am  G )

Gm                       F
What if it was all my fault
              C
What if I drove you to it
Gm                   F
I was only honest sometimes
              C
And I think you knew it
Gm                   F
Make a person out of memories
              C
```

```
They won't live up to it
Gm      A         Bb
I'm so sorry I stayed
B7
When I shouldn't

( F  Am  G )
( F  Am  G )

F
No one stops me
Am      G              F
 Nobody takes you from my hand
F
Even when you
Am          G              F
 Break your leg drunk running
F
Someone ought to
Am     G            Dm
 Hold me to my words
        Em    F
Say I love you
F                           Dm
And then drink it backwards
          Em    F
Say I love you

[Final]

( F  Am  G )
( F  Am  G )

Gm   F   C
Oooh
Gm   F   C
Oooh
Gm   F   C
Oooh
Gm   F   C
Oooh
C
   Oooh
```

Acordes