

Logic - Pretty Young Girl

Tom: E

She's a pretty young girl, doin' pretty young things
 She's a pretty young lady, pullin' at my heartstrings
 Pretty young girl, take my hand
 I'll be your man, I'll be your man
 I don't think you know, all the things you do to me
 It's new to me, it's all the things I've never known before
 I don't think you know, all the things you do to me
 It's new to me, it's all the things I've never known before
 Yeah, before
 And I, and I?

I'm fucked up
 I mean, I really am hurt
 You're new and you're beautiful

But experience tells me this ain't gonna work

You're just like all the rest, suffering in disguise
 Behind those beautiful eyes, lies, lies, and I
 Just can't do it again, I just don't wanna pretend
 That it'll work in the end
 Or if it don't, we'll be friends
 My heart can't take no more, I'm sincerely sure
 But if that shit was true, why in the hell am I singing for?
 She's a pretty young girl, doin' pretty young things
 She's a pretty young lady, pullin' at my heartstrings

Pretty young girl, take my hand
 I'll be your man, I'll be your man
 I don't think you know, all the things you do to me
 It's new to me, it's all the things I've never known before
 I don't think you know, all the things you do to me
 It's new to me, it's all the things I've never known before
 Yeah, before
