

Lola Young - Post Sex Clarity

Then I'm pulling it right back
                 tom:
                 Ab (forma dos acordes no tom de G )
                                                                   Feels so safe, you put me onto the right track
Capostraste na 1ª casa
Intro: C7M D C7M D
                                                                   I just came to my senses and I still don't regret it
                Yeah
( C7M D C7M D )
                                                                   Not one little bit and I'm not usually like that [Primeira Parte]
                                                                   [Pré-Refrão]
                                                                       C7M
Smart, funny, you're like honey
                                                                   And oh-ooh
                                                                                                       C7M
I want you to trickle right down my throat
                                                                   You make me wanna, make me wanna lose
          C7M
You're a sweet baby, I'm a sad, sad lady
                                                                   Myself, myself
                                                                   [Refrão]
But somehow you always make me feel at home
My heart's heavy, please, don't let me
                                                                   When I'm laying in bed, got post-sex clarity
Please, don't ever let me let you go
                                                                   I still love you, and I don't know why
'Cause I'd like to lay beside you all night
                                                                   'Cause every other man wouldn't mean a God damn to me
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                   When I finish, it's not the end of you and I
