

Loreena McKennitt - Blacksmith

tom:
               D
         Em
                            D
A blacksmith courted me
 Bm Em
Nine months and better
 Em D
He fairly won my heart
 Bm Em
Wrote me a letter
  G
With his hammer in his hand
He looked quite clever
 Em Bm
And if I was with my love
 G C
I'd live forever
But where is my love gone

Bm Em
With his cheeks like roses
Em D

And his good black billycock on Bm Em

Decked round with primroses
I Hope the scorching sun
  Em
Won't shine and burn his beauty

Em Bm

And if I was with my love
G C
I'd do my duty
Strange news is coming to town Bm Em
Strange news is carried
   Em
Strange news flies up and down
      Bm
That my love is married
I wish them both much joy \ensuremath{\mathsf{I}}
     Em
Though they can't hear me
Em Bm
And may God reward him well

For the slighting of me Fm Don't you remember when

Bm Em

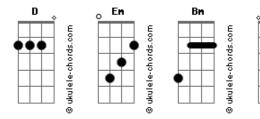

You lay beside me Em D And you said you'd marry me Bm Em And not deny me If I said I'd marry you
Em It was only for to try you Em Bm So bring your witness love And I'll not deny you No witness have I none No witness nave _ Bm Em Save God Almighty Em D Em And may he reward you well Bm For the slighting of me Her lips grew pale and wan It made her poor heart tremble Em Bm To think she loved a one G C And he proved deceitful A blacksmith courted me Nine months and better He fairly won my heart

Bm Em

Wrote me a letter

G With his hammer in his hand
Em D
He looked quite clever Em Bm And if I was with my love G C
