

Loreena McKennitt - Blacksmith

tom:
D

Em D
A blacksmith courted me

Bm Em
Nine months and better

Em D
He fairly won my heart

Bm Em
Wrote me a letter

G Bm
With his hammer in his hand

Em D
He looked quite clever

Em Bm
And if I was with my love

G C
I'd live forever

Em D
But where is my love gone

Bm Em
With his cheeks like roses

Em D
And his good black billycock on

Bm Em
Decked round with primroses

G Bm
I Hope the scorching sun

Em D
Won't shine and burn his beauty

Em Bm
And if I was with my love

G C
I'd do my duty

Em D
Strange news is coming to town

Bm Em
Strange news is carried

Em D
Strange news flies up and down

Bm Em
That my love is married

G Bm
I wish them both much joy

Em D
Though they can't hear me

Em Bm
And may God reward him well

G C

For the slighting of me

Em D
Don't you remember when

Bm Em
You lay beside me

Em D
And you said you'd marry me

Bm Em
And not deny me

G Bm
If I said I'd marry you

Em D
It was only for to try you

Em Bm
So bring your witness love

G C
And I'll not deny you

Em D
No witness have I none

Bm Em
Save God Almighty

Em D
And may he reward you well

Bm Em
For the slighting of me

G Bm
Her lips grew pale and wan

Em D
It made her poor heart tremble

Em Bm
To think she loved a one

G C
And he proved deceitful

Em D
A blacksmith courted me

Bm Em
Nine months and better

Em D
He fairly won my heart

Bm Em
Wrote me a letter

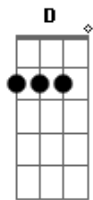

G Bm
With his hammer in his hand

Em D
He looked quite clever

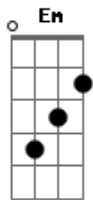

Em Bm
And if I was with my love

G C
I'd live forever
