

Lou Reed - Halloween Parade

Tom: C

D
There's a down town fairy singing out "Proud Mary"
A as she cruises Christopher Street
A And some Southern Queen is acting loud and mean where the docks and the Badlands meet Bm This Halloween is something to be sure Bm Especially to be here without you A
There's a Greta Garbo and an Alfred Hitchcock and some black Jamaican stud
A There's five Cinderellas and some leather drags
I almost fell into my mug
Bm There's a Crawford, Davis and a tacky Cary Grant Bm And some Homeboys lookin' for trouble down here from the Bronx
But there ain't no Hairy and no Virgin Mary you won't hear those voices again D And Johnny Rio and Rotten Rita you'll never see those faces again Em This Halloween is something to be sure Em Especially to be here without you
There's the Born Again Losers and the Lavender Boozers and some crack team from Washington Heights D The boys from Avenue B and the girls from Avenue D a Tinkerbell in tights Em

This celebration somehow get me down Em Especially when I see you're not around
G
There's no Peter Pedantic saying things romantic in Latin, Greek or Spic G There's no Three bananas or Brandy Alexander dishing all their tricks Am It's a different feeling that I have today
Am Especially when I know you've gone away
There's a girl from Soho with a teeshirt saying "I Blow" she's with the "jive five 2 plus 3" G And the girls for pay dates are giving cut rates or else doing it for free Am The past keeps knock, knock, knocking on my door Am And I don't want to hear it anymore
C No consolations please for feelin' funky
I got to get my head above my knees C But it makes me mad and mad makes me sad and then I start to freeze Dm In the back of my mind I was afraid it might be true Dm In the back of my mind I was afraid that they meant you
F The Halloween Parade
F At the Halloween parade
F At the Halloween parade
F See you next year, at the Halloween parade
