

Lou Reed - Hangin' Round

Tom: A

Intro: A D A E

A
Harry was a rich young man

D A
Who would become a priest

A
He dug up his father

D A
Who was recently deceased

B D A
He did it with tarot cards

B D A
And a mystically attuned mind

B D
And shortly there

A E E
And after he did find

A
Jeanie was a spoiled young brat

D A
She thought she knew it all

A
She smoked mentholated cigarettes

D A
And she had sex in the hall

B D A
But she was not my kind

B D A
Or even of my sign

B D
The kind of animal

A E E
That i would be about

A
Wow-wow-wow, you keep hangin' round me

D
And i'm not so glad you found me

A E
You're still doing things that i gave up years ago

D
And i'm not so glad you found me

A E
You're still doing things that i gave up years ago

(A D A E)

A
Kathy was a bit surreal

D A
She painted all her toes

A
And on her face she wore dentures

D A
Clamped tightly to her nose

B D A
And when she finally spoke

B D A
Her twang her glasses broke

B D A
And no one else could smoke

E E
While she was in the room

A
Hark, the herald angels sang

D A
And reached out for a phone

A
And plucking it with a knife in hand

D A
Dialed long distance home

B D A
But it was all too much

B D A
Sprinkling angel dust

B D
To AT and T

A E E
Who didn't wish you well

A
Oh, but you keep hangin' round me

D
And i'm not so glad you found me

A E
You're still doing things that i gave up years ago

A
Ho-ho-ho-ho, you keep hangin' round me

D
And i'm not so glad you found me

A E
You're still doing things that i gave up years ago

A D A E
Hangin' round
Hangin' round, that's all you're doing baby
Hangin' round
Hangin' round, ooohhh
Hangin' round
Hangin' round
Hangin' round
Hangin' round
