Lou Reed - Strawman

Tom: A

```
                         A        E
We who have so much to you who have so little
 D                            A
To you who don't have anything at all
                                  E
We who have so much more than any one man does need
     D                                A
And you who don't have anything at all, ah

                           E
Does anybody need another million dollar movie?
       D                            A
Does anybody need another million dollar star?
                         E
Does anybody need to be told over and over
  D                                       A
Spitting in the wind comes back at you twice as hard?

      D          A
Strawman, going straight to the devil
      D      A
Strawman, going straight to hell
     D            A
Strawman, going straight to the devil

      D
Strawman
    A
Strawman
     D
Strawman
    A
Strawman, yes

                        E
Does anyone really need a billion dollar rocket?
 D                          A
Does anyone need a $60,000 car?
                             E
Does anyone need another president?
       D                            A
Or the sins of Swaggart parts 6, 7, 8 and 9? Ah

                        E
Does anyone need yet another politician
                       D                          A
Caught with his pants down and money sticking in his hole?
```

```
                          E
Does anyone need another racist preacher?
                    D                     A
Spittin' in the wind can only do you harm, ooohhh

         D            A
Strawman, going straight to the devil
      D      A
Strawman, going straight to hell
      D            A
Strawman, going straight to the devil

     D
Strawman
   A
Strawman
    D
Strawman
   A
Strawman, yes

                            E
Does anyone need another faulty shuttle
             D                          A
Blasting off to the moon, Venus or Mars?
                       E
Does anybody need another self-righteous rock singer
           D                            A
Whose nose he says has led him straight to God?
                              E
Does anyone need yet another blank skyscraper?
                   D                            A
If you're like me I'm sure a minor miracle will do
                                    E
A flaming sword or maybe a gold ark floating up the Hudson
                          D                       A
When you spit in the wind it comes right back at you

         D           A
Strawman, going straight to the devil
      D      A
Strawman, going straight to hell
      D      A
Strawman, going to the devil

      D
Strawman
    A
Strawman
```

Acordes