

Louis Tomlinson - Walls

tom:

Intro: Am C G

Am
Nothing wakes you up like wakin' up alone C

Am
And all that's left of us is a cupboard C

Full of clothes

G
The day you walked away and took the higher Am

Ground

G
Was the day that I became the man that I am Am G

Now

Am

G

But these high walls, they came up short

Am G
Now I stand taller than them all

Am G
These high walls never broke my soul Am

And I, I watched them all come fallin' down

G C
I watched them all come fallin' down for

G C G
You, for you

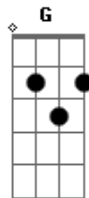

C D
So this one is a thank you for what you did to me

C D
Why is it that thank-yous are so often bittersweet?

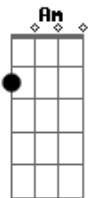

C D
I just hope I see you one day, and you say

C D
To me: oh, oh
