

Lucky Soul - The Last Song

Tom: A

Intro: C F C
C F C

C F C
Born on a tear

That seeps from the dagger shaped hole in your heart F C ( A )

Wounds that run deep F C

Well I'll try to patch them as best as I can F G

If the sun melts the black of the street C G F

And the long road home sticks to your feet C G F

When the music that frees you has all but been used up C G Am

Then I'll sing the last song for you F C F C

C
I hate to see your heart breaking

F C F C
I'll hold it safe in my hands

C G Am
I don't know if my words can bind it together

F G C C Am
But that's all I know how to do

F G C F C
So I'll sing the last song for you

[Solo] F G E F
F G C F C
F C F C

C F C
I ain't got much

F C F C
That I can give you, to keep you afloat

C F C
Mumbled comforts

F G
Are no use for wrestling demons, I know

F G
But a lopsided smile and a lovesick recital

E F
Might loosen the burden for now

C G F
The penultimate beat of the drum

C G F
As the second to last chord is strummed

C G Am
When all other words have already been heard

F G C C Am
I'll sing the last song for you

F G C C Am

I'll sing the last song for you
F G Am Am
I'll sing the last song for you
F G C
I'll sing the last song for you

A E
Something everlast, happy, sad
something to remind you all the best you ever had Gbm

Bm D7M
something magical, something tangible

A Dbm7 Gbm Gb
something true, so true

Gb D
through the restless night

E
drenched in pale moon light

Dbm7 D7M
A lullaby, to lie there by your side

D
Just you close your eyes

E
Dream of cloudly skies

A D A D
Drift to sleep

A E
Feel colors fall through your hands

Dbm7 Gbm
And the evening tide poured ripples on the sand

Bm
As the sun goes down

D7M
And the stars come out

A Dbm7 Gbm Gb
And the breeze, it sings

Gb D
Twilight melodies

E
Put your mind at ease

Dbm7 D
Let the clutter fly, way from you tonight

D
And this lullaby

E
Will caress your eyes

A D A D
Drift to sleep

Bm
And when the morning comes

D
And all your blue have gone

A D A D A
Think of me
