

Lucy Dacus - Best Guess

tom: You are my best guess G G Clasping your necklace If I were a gambling man, and I am Zipping your dress You'd be my best bet Hands on your waist [Ponte] Kissing your neck G G Here is the church I love your body Here is the steeple I love your mind You were looking for saints They will change But you only found people D So will mine Ain't that just the way it goes [Refrão] I watched you fall from grace You were graceful But you are After all, it's a small world My best guess You may not be an angel At the future But you are my girl You are my best guess G You are my pack a day If I were a gambling man, and I am $\,$ You are my favorite place You'd be my best bet Em You were my best friend before you were [Segunda Parte] [Refrão] Tracing your tan lines Em F C My best guess at the future Making you mine You are my best guess If this doesn't work out If I were a gambling man, and I am Am D I would lose my mind G G You'd be my best bet And after a while G I will be fine You are my best guess at the future You are my best guess But I don't wanna be fine G If I were a gambling man, and I am I want you, you, you are You'd be my best bet [Refrão] [Final] C G C F G C G Em F Dm G Acordes ukulele-chords.com ukulele-chords.com ukulele-chords.com

My best guess at the future