Tom: G

Intro: E D A E D A E G E

E D A
We can believe its a little woman

To be my heir

Owner of the future, fruit of the past

Now they want to take you away

Sweet flight, sweet flight (second part 2x)

Child you've been sentenced to death

Before you birthy, on that night

Your flame still burns, i feel the ligh i can see

Through the eyes of my love

I could see you smile

Where can i see you?

When can i see you?

Where can i see you,

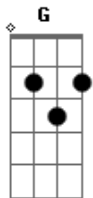

When can i see you

When can i see you When can i see you

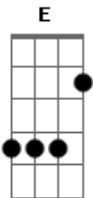

When can i see you When can i see you

When can i see you When can i see you (together)
