Intro: Ebm B Gb Db
The road stretches far under fading skies
With hollow cliffs and headlights Lies dusty boots
Tap a mournful tune as the sun surrenders to the moon
A faded map crumples in my hand
Chasing shadows across the land
  Gb
Every mile a memory gone astray
Every town a promise swept away

0oooh
Wandering feet, where do you belong?
                   Db
Chasing the whispers of some old love song
The wind's got secrets it refuses to share
                          Db
While I breathe the sorrow of the empty air
