

Lukas Graham - Stick Around

```
Intro: D Em Bm Bm D Em Bm Bm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        When our heroes are no longer out there
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I'm sorry to say that the smiles that I give you
If my memory serves me right
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         One day will be tears in your eyes
I would tuck you in almost every night
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I'm sorry to give you these memories
Saying, "Sweet dreams" and "Good night"
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          'Cause memories like this will one day make you cry
Right before I turned off all the lights
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         But I'ma stick around
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I promise you that I will stick around for now
But sweet dreams can turn into nightmares
                Em G Gb
When our heroes are no longer out there
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Em
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Bm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         And right now, my light is shining
I'm sorry to say that the smiles that I give you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Though one day that too will go out
                                                                                                           G
One day will be tears in your eyes
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         But for now
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Gb
I'm sorry to give you these memories % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right) \left(
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I'm gonna stick around
                                                                                  D
  'Cause memories like this will one day make you cry
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I'm sorry to say that the smiles that I give you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 D
But I'ma stick around
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        One day will be tears in your eyes
                                                                                                                                                                                                            Em Bm Bm
I promise you that I will stick around for now
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I'm sorry to give you these memories
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          'Cause memories like this will one day make you cry
Let these memories serve you right
When I'm no longer right by your side
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         But I'ma stick around
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Em Bm
Hope you, by then. learned to fly
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I promise you that I will stick around for now
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    D Em Bm G
And take with you the good things in life
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         ( D )
Don't let your big dreams don't turn into nightmares
Acordes
```

