Intro: D  D2  D  G
       D  D2  D

        Bm         A          G      D
I'd be spinnin' my wheels goin' nowhere fast
Bm          A            G     D
Pocket full of sorrys and an empty glass
     G          A             G         D
All hat and no cattle and some tumbleweed boots
       G            A         G     D
I'd be blowin' in the wind if I didn't have you

D                       G        D
I'd be a drunk without a drink to drink
              G       D
A guitar with a broken string
                  Bm       A         G       Bm
Without you, I'd be a fallin' star without a midnight sky
               G       D
A cowboy with no horse to ride

       Bm         A         G         D
I'd be drivin' in the dark with no headlights on
   Bm       A         G        D
```
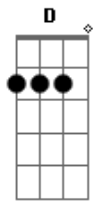

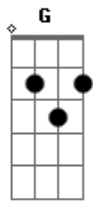

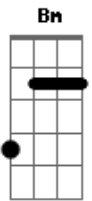

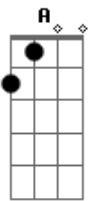

On a one-way highway that didn't go home
```
                G              A          G      D
I'd have to borrow from the devil just to pay my dues
       G            A         G       D
I'd have nothin' worth havin' if I didn't have you

D                       G        D
I'd be a drunk without a drink to drink
              G       D
A guitar with a broken string
                  Bm       A         G       Bm
Without you, I'd be a fallin' star without a midnight sky
              G       D
I'd be a train runnin' out of tracks
              G       D
Missin' pages in a paperback
                     G        A         G       Bm
Without you, I'd be the kind of lost that's hard to find
               G       D
Walkin' through this world alive
              G       D
A cowboy with no horse to ride

[Final] G  D
