Bm

I'm losing my soul
My demons they grow
They drag me below
But nobody knows

No nobody knows
When they take control
I cannot die, I don't bleed anymore

Bm

Still I feel the pain
Inside this hell
I'm burned by the flames

Eternal yells cast into the lake
Where there is no love
'Cause love is just pain

Bm

So why am I living life 'cause life's just the same?

Blackbird don't need a reason to go fly

Nobody wonders why he gets so high
'Cause nobody ever question where he go

Bm

'Cause nobody pays attention anymore
Blackbird gon' fall from the sky
Blackbird gon' take his own life

Blackbird he say goodbye
Blackbird he don't wanna cry

Bm

Blackbird he don't wanna cry no more

Bm

I'll admit that I am selfish, I'll admit that I have lied

But girl how many times can I fucking apologize
Stare into your eyes I'm looking for a vital sign

Bm

But all I see is cold baby your hearts turned into ice
Conversate with God only thing that keep me round

Got a little bit of hope left though I'm broke down
Late at night my demons fight they yell so fuckin' loud

Bm

Burning blunts and empty bottles only thing that calm them down

I'm losing my soul
My demons they grow
They drag me below
But nobody knows

No nobody knows
When they take control
I cannot die, I don't bleed anymore

Bm

Still I feel the pain
Inside this hell
I'm burned by the flames

Where there is no love
