

Lurker - Love And Obsession

tom:
D

I don?t have to try to show you affection Bm

It?s just something that I?m happy to do E7

I struggle in pursuit of perfection Gm

Cause I don?t think that I?m good enough for you D

D Bm

I feel if I ask you the question

Then all the noise will leave from my head E7

But I don?t heal by taking possession, no Gm

It only seems to hurt me instead D

D Bm

What?s the difference between love and obsession?

I don?t know but I know I want you E7

And judging by your facial expression, oh A

I think maybe you might want me too D

D Bm

What?s the difference between love and obsession?

I can never tell them apart E7

And judging by the way that I?m guessing Gm

There?s a missing piece inside of my heart D

D Bm

I?ll do anything to get your attention

The idea of you with someone else brings me pain E7

But I?m never good at learning a lesson, no Gm

Every time?s exactly the same D

D Bm

I?m too good at over protection

But a bird can never fly in a cage E7

They should be free to leave or stay connected Gm

But it?s so hard to accept either way D

D Bm

What?s the difference between love and obsession?

I don?t know but I know I want you E7

And judging by your facial expression, oh A

I think maybe you might want me too D

D Bm

What?s the difference between love and obsession?

I can never tell them apart E7

And judging by the way that I?m guessing Gm

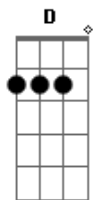

There?s a missing piece inside of my heart D

(Oh, inside of my heart?)

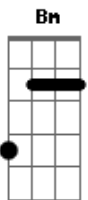

There?s a missing piece inside of my heart D

(Oh, inside of my heart?)
