

Luvcat - He's My Man

tom:
[Primeira Parte]
Late September in the city
The sky is grey, the air is sticky
I keep falling in and out of sleep
Letting the sun scorch the grass
The flies are knocking on the glass
But they're the only other friends I have, you see

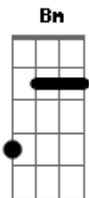

[Pré-Refrão]
I need him so much that it hurts
I wish he didn't have to go to work
I just lie and watch the ceiling fan turn

[Refrão]
He's my man, we're hand in hand
To hell and back
And I'll love him like nobody else can
He's my man, I've been damned
No, nobody has to understand
Me and my man

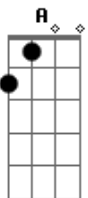

[Segunda Parte]
I stay home and make his dinner
Even though somehow he keeps getting thinner
I wait, watching the washing machine
Spin round and round again

[Pré-Refrão]

I need him so much that it hurts
I wish he didn't have to go to work
He keeps complaining that his visions blurred

[Refrão]
But he's my man, we're hand in hand
To hell and back
And I'll love him like nobody else can
He's my man, I've been damned
No, nobody has to understand
Me and my man

[Ponte]
He keeps having feverish dreams
That he can never ever leave
He wakes, head aches, funny taste to his tea
I want him to stay here forever
He's happiest with me
Cause he

[Refrão]
He's my man
And I'll love him like nobody else can
He's my man, he's gone quite mad
No, nobody has to understand
Me and my man
