

Lynyrd Skynyrd - Ready To Fly

Tom: C

Mamma called this morning, said soon why won't you come back home

i ain't been feeling good and i know it won't be long

Don't keep me waiting i wanna touch your face again oooh what a good life it's being

Now i'm ready to fly, i wanna see your daddy again

I'm ready to fly, all my family and friends

i know that i do waitting in a place beyond the sky

i'm ready to fly.....yeah i'm ready to fly

Hard times in sixty nine, the war was ?ragged? on

That's the reason my dad left and never made him back home

It was a suffer for all of us, but mamma smiled every day

oooh it's so hard to hear her say

Now i'm ready to fly, i wanna see your daddy again

i know that i do waitting in a place beyond the sky..... so i'm ready to fly

She make sure she never let see her crying

But those tears on the pilow, she couldn't hide

i'm ready to fly, i wanna see your daddy again

i know that i do waitting in a place beyond the sky

sooooo, yeah i'm ready to fly

i wanna see your daddy again

I'm ready to fly, all my family and friends

i know that i do waitting in a place beyond the sky

i'm ready to fly..... yeah, i'm ready to fly

i'm ready to fly

fly, fly, fly
