Lynyrd Skynyrd - You Got That Right

Tom: C Guess I was born with a travellin' bone (intro) (bridge to chorus) When my times up, I'll hold my own You won't find me in an old folks home I play it this way because it gives good tone, and fill. I have seen skynyrd play it at the (chorus again) 8th and 10t fret. (bidge to solo) (intro lead riff - played with a slide, or with fingers) 1:14b (guitar 2) (slide) (part 1) (bridge to verse) (guitar 1) I tried everything in my life Things I like I try 'em twice You got that right (guitar 2) (slide) (first time I think first 4 notes are played in reverse of whats tabbed here) 0:14 (verse - I play the power chords. Recording plays some blues rock riffs on another track) got that right! You sure (slide Solo goes here- I have not worked on that yet) Well I heard lots of people say their gonna settle down. (back to verse) Travellin' around the world, just singing my song I got to go, Lord I can't stay long Here comes that ol' travellin' jones once again You dont see their faces and they dont come around I like to drink and to dance all night Comes to a fix not afraid to fight Well Im not that way I got to move along (chorus) (bridge to chorus) You got that right Said, you got that right I like to drink and dance all night Comes to a fix not Well you got that right Sure got that right afraid to fight 0:33 (chorus) (song changes key for the finale. Solo over progression) (I (intro Chords over again) Have not worked on it) You got that right! Said You got that right! sure got that right!

(part 1)
(back to verse progression again)

Seems so long I been out on my own Travel light and I'm always alone
