Mac Demarco - Home

                    tom:
                      A
        Bm7
These days, I'd much rather be on my own
        A                              Abm7          Db7
No more walking those streets, that I once called my home
          Bm7
Because down every lane, there are faces and names
          A                          Abm7        Db7
That have memories attached, that I'd sooner let go

      Gbm           Bm7    A
Sooner than I'd go home again
        Gbm           Bm7    A
Sooner than I'd go home again
        Gbm           Bm7    A
Sooner than I'd go home again
        Gbm           Bm7    A

Sooner than I'd go home again

Bm7
I never called, let our friendship dissolve
          A                        Abm7          Db7
Now my welcome's worn out, and your hate for me's grown
          Bm7
To the point, when I try to amend all the lies
          A                          Abm7          Db7
All those memories return, that I'd sooner let go

      Gbm           Bm7    A
Sooner than I'd go home again
        Gbm           Bm7    A
Sooner than I'd go home again
        Gbm           Bm7    A
Sooner than I'd go home again
        Gbm           Bm7    A
Sooner than I'd go home again
