

Machine Gun Kelly - Bad Things (feat. Camila Cabello)

```
Tom: D
                                                                  Don't think that I can explain it
                                                                  What can I say, it's complicated
 (com acordes na forma de C )
Capostraste na 2ª casa
                                                                  Don't matter what you say
Am I out of my head?
                                                                  Don't matter what you do
Am I out of my mind?
                                                                  I only wanna do bad things to you
If you only knew the bad things I like
                                                                  So good, that you can't explain it
Don't think that I can explain it
                                                                  What can I say, it's complicated
What can I say, it's complicated
Don't matter what you say
                                                                  I can't explain it
Don't matter what you do
                                                                  I love the pain
I only wanna do bad things to you
                                                                  And I love the way your breath
So good, that you can't explain it
                                                                  Numbs me of novocaine
What can I say, it's complicated
                                                                  And we are Always high
Nothing's that bad
                                                                  Keep it strange
If it feels good
                                                                  Okay, yeah, I'm insane
So you come back
                                                                  But you the same
Like I knew you would
                                                                  Let me paint the picture
And we're both wild
                                                                  Couch by the kitchen
                                                                  Nothin' but your heels on
And the night's young
And you're my drug
                                                                  Losin' our religion
Breathe you in 'til my face numb
                                                                  You're my pretty little vixen
                                                                  And I'm the voice inside your head
Drop it down to that bass drum
                                                                  That keeps telling you to listen to all the bad things I say
I got what you dream about
Nails scratchin' my back tatt
                                                                  I want you forever
Eyes closed while you scream out
                                                                  Even when we're not together
And you keep me in with those hips
                                                                  Scars on my body so I can take you wherever
While my teeth sink in those lips
                                                                  I want you forever
While your body's giving me life
                                                                  Even when we're not together
And you suffocate in my kiss
                                                                  Scars on my body I can look at you whenever
Then you said
                                                                  Am I out of my head?
I want you forever
                                                                  \begin{array}{c} \text{Am I out of my mind?} \\ \text{C} \end{array}
Even when we're not together
                                                                  If you only knew the bad things I like
Scars on my body so I can take you wherever
                                                                  Don't think that I can explain it
I want you forever
                                                                  What can I say, it's complicated
Even when we're not together
                                                                  Don't matter what you say
Scars on my body I can look at you whenever
                                                                  Don't matter what you do
Am I out of my head?
                                                                  I only wanna do bad things to you
Am I out of my mind?
                                                                  So good, that you can't explain it
If you only knew the bad things I like {\color{red}\mathsf{C}}
                                                                  What can I say, it's complicated
