Macy Gray - Strange Behavior

```
Tom: F
                                                                       Am7
                                                                                  Gm
                                                                                        C F
Intro: F Am7 Gm C F
                                                              Strange behavior by the sea. (se-e-e)
                                                                     Am7
                                                              He'd be here
This is the story
                                                                        Gm
                                                              But he's deceased
   Am7
About two people
                                                               C F
   Gm C F
                                                              Strange behavior
In love
                                                             Bb
E .
                                                              What was I to do
We were happily married
                                                             Am7
                                                              Sometimes its me or you
  Am7
Until he waved a gun at me
                                                                            Am7 Gm F
                                                             Gm
                                        F
        Gm
I said whats with all your strange behavior
                                                             Dm
                                                              Words in whipper dose
He said I love you babay
                                                                               Bb
       Am7
But you got a big insurance policy
                                                                            С
                                                              Cuz Im rich now
Gm
And I really
F
  Gm
                                                             .
SHHHHHHHHH
Need the paper
                                                             F
                            C F
                                                             Drove his body to the sea
          Am7
                     Gm
Strange behavior by the sea. (se-e-e)
                                                             Am7
       Am7
He'd be here
                                                                    Gm
                                                                                С
          Gm
But he's deceased
                                                              And the people all asking me
  C
        F
Strange behavior
                                                                    Am7
                                                              I say he'd be here but he deceased
                                                                 Gm
                         Am7
                                                                           С
                                                                                      F
                                                              Then I go and spend my papa-a Oh oh oh
I had a big insurance policy
                   Gm
And he had a big insurance policy
                                                             F
                                                                                  Gm
                                                                      Am7
 F
                                                              Strange behavior by the sea. (se-e-e)
Too!
                                                                    Am7
                                                              He'd be here
I said baby if you get a job
                                                                        Gm
                                                              But he's deceased
     Am7
You would not have to shoot me now
                                                               C F
                                                              Strange behavior
        Gm
                       С
He said Oh My God Your such a hata
                                                                                  Gm
                                                                       Am7
                                                              Strange behavior by the sea. (se-e-e)
But then he chickened out
                                                                     Am7
   Am7
I took the gun and shot him down
                                                              He'd be here
   Gm C
                     E F
                                                                    Gm
Cuz I really need the papa
                                                              He'd be here
                                                               С
                                                                      F
```

Acordes

I swear that I loved you baby All I have to say so I say so Kissed him on his cold cheek I said I guess I'll see you later

C F

C F

He's dead! BЬ Gn Dn ukulele-chords.com ukulele-chords.com ukulele-chords.com