

Mad Season - Wake Up

Tom: G

Wake up young man, it's time to wake up
 Your love affair has got to go
 For 10 long years, for 10 long years
 The leaves to rake up
 Slow suicide's no way to go, oh
 Blue, clouded grey
 You're not a crack up
 Dizzy and weakened by the haze
 Moving onward
 So an infection not a phase

Yeah, oh

Repete as mesmas notas até o final da música

The cracks and lines from where you gave up
 They make an easy man to read, oh
 For all the times you let them bleed you
 For a little peace from God you plead, and beg
 For a little peace from God you plead
 Ahhaahh, Yeah, Ahhaahh, Yeah, Ahhaahh, Yeah

Wake up young man, wake up, wake up
 Wake up, wake up, wake up, wake up
 Oh, yeah

Wake up young man, it's time to wake up
 Your love affair has got to go, yeah
 For 10 long years, for 10 long years,
 The leaves to rake up
 Slow suicide's no way to go, oh
 Slow suicide's no way to go
 Wake up, wake up, wake up
 Wake up, wake up, wake up
