

Madison Beer - All For Love Ft. Jack & Jack

Tom: A

Bm A E
I'm looking for places to run and hide

Bm A E
I'll never forget you, Lord knows I've tried

Bm A E
Wish I could see you without closing my eyes

Bm A E
But I know, I know, it's so far behind

Bm A
Fading out, fading out, can't get right

E
I'm tossing out, turning out every night

Bm A
I'm losing my, losing my goddamn mind

Bm A
Ask me why I did it, ask me why I did it

Bm A E
I said, "All for love"

A
Ask me why I did it

Bm A E
I said, "All for love"

Ask me why I did it
I said

Bm A E
I've run out of tears, I've run out of pride

Bm A E
It's crazy the truth hurts way more than the lie

Bm A
Fading out, fading out, can't get right

E
I'm tossing out, turning out every night

Bm A

When I'm away from her, the time's slow
And I ain't leaning on a double cup of styrofoam
She got me feening, you wanna know the reason she really fly though

She gets me high but I ain't got a high to run the five-o
And when her name pops up on my iPhone
I'm still mind blown that this love is diamonds
No rhinestones 'cause what we got's for real
And I forget what day of week it is when I'm with her
She got me doing crazy things without her dropping liquor
Drunk in love, this can't be good for my liver
She's the only one who kicks me off Instagram and Twitter
And everybody keeps on asking me just why I did it
So I tell 'em

E
Ask me why I did it

Bm A E
I said, "All for love"

E
Ask me why I did it

E
I said

Bm A
All for love, all for love, all for love

E
All for love, all for love, all for love

Bm A E
All for love

Ask me why I did it
