

Madison Beer - All For Love Ft. Jack & Jack

Tom: A

I'm looking for places to run and hide
 I'll never forget you, Lord knows I've tried
 Wish I could see you without closing my eyes
 But I know, I know, it's so far behind

Fading out, fading out, can't get right
 I'm tossing out, turning out every night
 I'm losing my, losing my goddamn mind
 Ask me why I did it, ask me why I did it

I said, "All for love"
 Ask me why I did it
 I said, "All for love"
 Ask me why I did it
 I said

I've run out of tears, I've run out of pride
 It's crazy the truth hurts way more than the lie

Fading out, fading out, can't get right
 I'm tossing out, turning out every night
 I'm losing my, losing my goddamn mind
 Ask me why I did it, ask me why I did it

I said, "All for love"
 Ask me why I did it

I said, "All for love"
 Ask me why I did it
 I said
 All for love, all for love, all for love
 All for love, all for love, all for love
 All for love
 Ask me why I did it
 I said

When I'm away from her, the time's slow
 And I ain't leaning on a double cup of styrofoam
 She got me feening, you wanna know the reason she really fly though
 She gets me high but I ain't got a high to run the five-o
 And when her name pops up on my iPhone
 I'm still mind blown that this love is diamonds
 No rhinestones 'cause what we got's for real
 And I forget what day of week it is when I'm with her
 She got me doing crazy things without her dropping liquor
 Drunk in love, this can't be good for my liver
 She's the only one who kicks me off Instagram and Twitter
 And everybody keeps on asking me just why I did it
 So I tell 'em

Ask me why I did it
 I said, "All for love"
 Ask me why I did it
 I said
 All for love, all for love, all for love
 All for love, all for love, all for love
 All for love
 Ask me why I did it
 I said
