Madonna - Miles Away

```
Tom: C
                                                               You always love me more
  (intro) Am Em G Dm
                                                                        G
                                                               Miles away
                                                                                       Em7
I just woke up from a fuzzy dream
                                                               I hear it in your voice
                                 Dm7
                                                                                    Dm7
Em7
                                                               We are miles away
You never would believe those things that I had seen
                            G
                                                                                    Am
I looked in the mirror and I saw your face
                                                               You're not afraid to tell me
Em7
                                 Dm7
                                                               G
You looked right through me, you were miles away
                                                               Miles away
                                                                                     Fm7
                                                               I guess we're at our best
Am
                             G
All my dreams, they fade away
                                                                               Dm7
                                                               We are miles away
Fm7
                                   Dm7
I'll never be the same
                            G
Am
                                                                      Am
If you could see me the way you see yourself
                                                               So far away
Em7
                                                                       G
I can't pretend to be someone else
                                                               So far away
                                                                      Em7
                                                               So far away
Am
You always love me more
                                                                      Dm7
                                                               So far away
         G
Miles away
                                                                      Am
                                                               So far away
                       Fm7
I hear it in your voice
                                                                       G
                                                               So far away
                   Dm7
We are miles away
                                                                      Em7
                                                               So far away
                     Am
You're not afraid to tell me
                                                                      Dm7
                                                               So far away
Miles away
                                                                       G
                                                                                  Em7 Am
                      Em7
                                                                  Dm7
I guess we're at our best
                                                               I'm alright, don't be sorry, but it's true
                                                                 Dm7
              Dm7
                                                                                   Fm7
We are miles away
                                                               When I'm gone you'll realize
                                                                  Dm7
                                                                                                     Am
                                                               That I'm the best thing that happened to you
       Am
So far away
       G
                                                               Am
                                                               You always love me more
So far away
      Em7
                                                                        G
                                                               Miles away
So far away
      Dm7
                                                                                       Em7
So far away
                                                               I hear it in your voice
       Am
                                                                                    Dm7
So far away
                                                               We are miles away
                                                                                    Am
       G
So far away
                                                               You're not afraid to tell me
      Em7
                                                               G
So far away
                                                               Miles away
      Dm7
                                                                                     Fm7
                                                               I guess we're at our best
So far away
                                                                              Dm7
                                                               We are miles away
                            G
Am
When no one's around, then I have you here
Em7
                                  Dm7
                                                                       Am
I begin to see the picture, it becomes so clear
                                                               So far away
                            G
                                                                      G
Am
You always have the biggest heart
                                                               So far away
                                 Dm7
                                                                      Em7
Em7
When we're six thousand miles apart
                                                               So far away
                                                                      Dm7
                             G
                                                               So far away
Am
Too much of no sound
                                                                       Am
                                                               So far away
Em7
                                   Dm7
Uncomfortable silence can be so loud
                                                                      G
                                                               So far away
Am
                            G
Those three words are never enough
                                                                      Em7
                                Dm7
                                                               So far away
Em7
But it's now distance love
                                                                      Dm7
                                                               So far away
```

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br