

Magdalena Bay - Watching T.V.

```
It's time to meet
                                                                          Db
                                                                                     Bbm Gbm
               tom:
                                                              The monsters around you
               F
Intro: F
                                                                           Dh
                                                              It's time to meet
        A7M
Too much watching TV
                                                              0h
                           Abm7
                                                                                      Bbm Gbm
                                   Db7
                                                                            C#7M
          A7M
It's gonna rot you from the inside out
                                                              The monsters inside you
         A7M
                    Dbm
                                                                           C#7M
 If you wanna reach me
                                                              It's time to meet
             A7M
                              Abm7
                                       Db7
Just leave a message and we'll work it out
                                                              (Gb Dbm Db)
(Gb Db)
                                                              All that's left to bother me
Hello? How are you?
                                                                  Eb
                                                              Are dreams forgotten in the deep
     Gb
Just wanted to say
                                                              It's not me
I miss you, so call me
F#7M Db
                                                              Nothing left to follow me
Back someday
                                                              Nothing hanging underneath
Hello? Where are you?
  F#7M
                                                              It's not me
I'm calling to say
                                                              C#7M
                                                                         Db
I miss you, so call me
                                                              Hello? How are you?
Back
                                                              Just wanted to say
( E )
                                                              I miss you, so call me
                                                              Bbm
                                                                       Gbm
                                                              Back someday
If you wanna be clean
                      Abm7
                                                              ( Db Gbm Dbm Bbm )
         A7M
You gotta scrub until blood comes out
          A7M
                      Dbm
                                                                              Db Gbm
 Get the spots in between
                                                                  It's time to meet
                            Abm7
                                                                            Db
                                                                                      Bbm Gbm
          A7M
Slip your skin right off and hang it out
                                                              The monsters around you
                                                                           Db Gbm
( F#7M C#7M )
                                                              It's time to meet
                                                                             Db
Look out
                                                              The monsters inside you
                                                              Gbm
Behind you
                                                              Oh, oh, oh
    F#7M
               C#7M
                                                                           Db
The shadows are near
                                                              It's time to meet
                                                              Gbm
                                                              Ωh
They know what's been wrong with you
Fm Dbm Gbm
                                                                             Db
                                                                                      Bbm Gbm
All these years
                                                              The monsters inside you
                                                                           Db
                                                              It's time to meet
                 Gbm
Acordes
```

