

Maggie Rogers - The Kill

tom:
Intro: G A

G D
One of these days, I'm gonna wake up smiling
A Gbm
One of these days, I'm gonna cry
G D
When all of the years start to blend in together
A
I watch 'em disappear in your eyes
G D
Remember the days we used to drive upstate
A
Singing indie rock songs in the car
G D
You wore your fresh leather and blamed it on the weather
A
For being the reason you wer?
G A
So difficult, but so invincible
Bm D
Irresistible, but I lov?d you still
G A
You kept my secrets and stole my weaknesses
D Bm
In your white T-shirt, but I couldn't fill
G A
The shoes you laid down for me from the girls that came before
D Bm
I was all the way in, you were halfway out the door
G A Bm
Oh, I was an animal making my way up the hill
Bm G
And you were going in for the kill
A G
And you were going in for the kill
(D A)
G G
One of these days, I'm gonna wake up fresh
A Gbm
And wipe all the past from my eyes
G
Curl up next to you in tall grass, sunshine
A
And wrap my body's shape 'round your side
G Bm
Remember the days we used to ideate
A
About what we would do all our lives
G D
I'd be a singer and an old bourbon drinker
A
Oh, and we'd have a band on the side
A G A
Oh, I know I was so difficult, but so invincible

Acordes

Bm D

Em7 A
Oh, all of our lives
A
Was worth it
G A
Ooh, we were just wasting time
A
'Cause we were hurting
Em G
But I know that you know that I know you best
D Bm
And I know that we both can forget all the rest
G
If we just can
A
Admit that
A G A
We both were so difficult, but so invincible
