From: Kent Randell

my band Leslie Can't Love plays this so I figured why not transcribe it.
Chords with words are first. Some riffs are tabbed at the bottom.

into: G F C

VERSE 1:

It was the army train that took her daddy from her

It was the bible train that took her momma too

And that high loud whistle made her horse run away

But the straw the broke the camel's back was you

It was the government train that took away her childhood

It was the KKK that took away her past

It was the white man's will that hers be broken

But that barefoot girl could run too fast

CHORUS:

Because the world's too cold for a girl like that with a

Blackfoot soul and a cowboy hat

Everything she loved went down the dragon track

She had a fear of trains

BRIDGE:

In the beet fields of Montana

She's always coming on dead rails to break the plow and whisper "Honey, bound to live is bound to fail"

And in a park in San Francisco her momma shrieks about the Lord

And down the dead rails there's an echo

The wind is whistling all-aboard

CHORUS

VERSE2: (same chords as before)

It was the wagon train that too away her country

It was the oil train that took away her land

She could have been the belle of the ponderosa

but that was not the fat man's plan

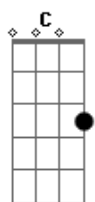

CHORUS

Guitar riff during verses and intro:

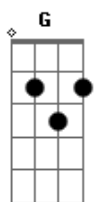

Guitar riff at the end of the Chorus:

Guitar/keyboard riff during the bridge:

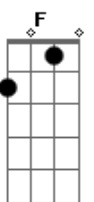

Acordes
