Maisie Peters - Elvis Song

                              tom:
                 F

             [Primeira Parte]

F
Cold bench on a platform
Dm
Last train on the Northern Line
C                Bb
I'm trying to keep you out my mind
F
Too drunk for a drawbridge
Dm
Your name floods when my eyes are shut
C
We found love
Bb
You gave it all and gave it up

[Pré-Refrão]

I don't do it often
Dm
But when no one's watching
C                  Bb
No one's watching

[Refrão]

I'm thinking 'bout
F
Late nights in the old arcade
            Dm
Drinking cheap wine as Elvis played, singing
"You were always on my mind"
Bb
I was yours and you were mine
F
Breakfast on your sofa bed, thinking
 Dm
Oh God, I'm in over my head
 C
You were always on my mind
 Bb
You're always on my mind

[Segunda Parte]

F
I've got no right to miss you
Dm
All I did was kiss and fly
C              Bb
Each time, I stayed another night
F
I was scared to throw my heart off the edge
Dm
Easier to tell myself we'd mess it up instead
So I left
          Bb
But it plays 'round in my head

[Pré-Refrão]

I don't do this often
Dm
But when no one's watching
C                  Bb
No one's watching

[Refrão]

I'm thinking 'bout
F
Late nights in the old arcade
            Dm
Drinking cheap wine as Elvis played, singing
 C
"You were always on my mind"
Bb
I was yours and you were mine
F
Breakfast on your sofa bed, thinking
 Dm
Oh God, I'm in over my head
 C
You were always on my mind
 Bb
You're always on my mind

[Pós-Refrão]
 F              Dm
You're always, always, always on my mind
 C               Bb
You're always, always, always on my mind

[Ponte]

F               Dm
In my mind, I hear it and I know nothing's changed
C                        Bb
In my mind, we share earphones on a midnight train
F                       Dm
And I've tried, you moved on and I moved a little too
C                        Bb
And I still wish things were different, don't you?

[Refrão]

I never wanna stop thinking 'bout
F
Late nights in the old arcade
            Dm
Drinking cheap wine as Elvis played, singing
 C
"You were always on my mind"
Bb
I was yours and you were mine
F
Breakfast on your sofa bed, thinking
 Dm
Oh God, I'm in over my head
 C
You were always on my mind
 Bb
You're always on my mind

[Pós-Refrão]

F                Dm
You're always, always, always on my mind
C                  Bb
You're always, always, always on my mind
F                  Dm
You're always, always, always on my mind
C                    Bb
You're always on my mind
