Intro: F

[Primeira Parte]

F
I guess I took it for granted

You'd bury me someday
        Dm
All the big plans that I planted

While you planned your own escape
        F
Never thought I was the greatest

But I was great for you
      Dm
Just assumed I was your favorite

With no one else to choose

[Pré-Refrão]

   Bb                  F
I try to kiss your face, you turn away
C                    Dm
No one ever taught me the protocol
Bb                  F                    C
What do you do when the good guys change their mind?

[Refrão]

        F       C      Dm     C    Bb            C
'Cause I used to think that if I tried my best I'd always win
F          C      Dm       C       Bb      C        F
But I'll sit in your favorite dress and ask you where you've been
F       C       Dm     C       Bb          Dm
People don't l?ave people if th?y really are in love
F C  Dm   C   Bb          F
I was good just wasn't good enough
F C  Dm   C   Bb    C      Dm
I was good just wasn't good enough

[Segunda Parte]

            F
There were four eyes in the garden

Two cried but two looked down
        Dm
Now you're asking for a pardon

'Cause I'm a good time pound for pound
          F
And you say this was a hard one
But lately you felt stuck
        Dm
And I thought I was first place

But I was runner up

[Pré-Refrão]

   Bb                  F
I try to kiss your face, you turn away
C                    Dm
No one ever taught me the protocol
Bb           F                    C
What do you do when the good guys change their mind?

[Refrão]

        F       C      Dm     C    Bb            C
'Cause I used to think that if I tried my best I'd always win
F          C      Dm       C       Bb      C        F
But I'll sit in your favorite dress and ask you where you've been
F       C       Dm     C       Bb          Dm
People don't l?ave people if th?y really are in love
F C  Dm   C   Bb          F
I was good just wasn't good enough
F C  Dm   C   Bb    C      Dm
I was good just wasn't good enough

                         Bb    F
I never said I was perfect
              C                   Dm
Just thought I was perfect for you
              Bb    F
But all that worthless
              C                       Dm
'Cause if I couldn't be one, I wouldn't ever be two
             Bb   F             C         Dm
Thought I was the way home, but I was an obstacle to move
             Bb   F
I never said I was perfect
        C
Like you

[Refrão]

        F       C      Dm     C    Bb            C

F          C      Dm       C       Bb      C        F
But I'll sit in your favorite dress and wonder how you've been
F       C       Dm     C       Bb      C        Dm
And did you ever mean it when you said you were in love?
F C  Dm   C   Bb          F
I was good just wasn't good enough
F C  Dm   C   Bb    C      Dm
I was good just wasn't good enough
