Up on the hill
 Under an old hollowed shack
 Full of dreams and letting go of the ill
 She could feel the call, there was no turning back

She went through the light
 Hoping to see new skylines
 While the rain floods the night
 She claims towards the sky

She felt the silver wind lifting feathers
 Dragging down wine and light waters (increasing waterfalls)
 Making brighter the shining sky, always warmer
 Walking through the moss green
 She saw brown forms hiding in between (and after all)
 She was being released of all her sins

She went through the light
 Hoping to see new skylines
 While the rain floods the night
 She claims towards the sky

( Eb Gm F )

Her heart was beating in different beats
 Making her way around the talking trees
 What does she seek? What does she seek?

 ( Eb Gm F C )
 ( Eb Gm F C )
 ( Eb Gm F C )

She went through the light
 Hoping to see new skylines
 While the rain floods the night
 She claims towards the sky

She stood at the huge gate
 The tight opening showed her faith
 Within the stars sentinels waits
 What did she pay? What will she face?

Her answer was given
 While looking back she was feeling
 Passing through the gate
 She knelt and claimed
 Towards the night and far away
