

MARIANAx - Lótus

tom:

A

I can feel through your eyes

Em D

The dark desperate storm

And I know that you are lost

For the long that you're gone

And I know all the sunken things

Deep inside your heart

I know

Let it be gone

But there's a noise in your head that is echoing and echoing and

Echoing

Let the sun stroke your skin and breathe in and breathe in and

Breathe in and breathe in and breathe in

Be in peace

Until you feel all your nerve endings

Making synapses with every

Part of your body

( D F G )

The sea lies in between

Your lungs full of golden leaves

As you fight against it all

Underneath the stars

You gasp for a whole new world

Underneath your skin

Something screams to be released

There's a noise in your head that is echoing and echoing and

Echoing

Hear the choir of the waves that are echoing and echoing and

Echoing and echoing

Be in peace

Until you feel all your nerve endings

Making synapses with every

Part of your body

( D C D )

What is deep in your soul?

Let it rise to the cosmos

Everything that is hiding

Sparks are scaping

A flower ready to bloom

Let it be out of your core, of our core

Reach the moon being full of you

In this new world full of you

Hear this echoing again, echoing again, echoing again, and

And again

( F G C D )

Ah

( F G C D )
