

Marilyn Manson - Running To The Edge Of The World

```
I had no choice,
Intro: 2X (G D Em7 )
                                                                 I erased the debt of our family,
Remember when i took you
                                                                 let you say goodbye
up to the top of the hill?
                                                                 with lips like dynamite.
We had our knives drawn.
                                                                 And everyone
                                                                 turned their backs
They were as sharp
              Em7
as we were in love.
                                                                 because they knew
If god crossed us
                                                                 when we held on tight
we'd take all his drugs,
                                                                 to each other,
                                                                 we were something fatal,
burn his money
and his house down,
                                                                 that fell into the wrong hands.
                                                                 (pré-refrão)
   Em7
and wait for the fire to spread.
                                                                 AM7
                                                                                   Em7
(pré-refrâo)
                                                                 Sometimes hate is not enough
                                                                   Am7
                                                                                   Em7
Am7
                                                                 to turn this all to ashes.
                  Fm7
Sometimes hate is not enough
                                                                 Am7
                                                                 Together as one
to turn this all to ashes.
                                                                 against all others
                                                                 break
Together as one
F<sub>m</sub>7
against all others
                                                                  all of their wings to
break
 all of their wings to
                                                                 make sure it crashes
make sure it crashes
                                                                 (refrão)
(refrão)
                                                                We're running to the We're running to the edge of the world
edge of the world
                                                                 Running, running away
           Fm7
                                                                We're running to the edge of the world
Running, running away
We're running to the edge of the world
                                                                 I don't know if the world will end today
I don't know if the world will end today
                                                                            D Em7
                                                                                                    (repete 2X)
                                                                 We don't see death, we see destruction
(verso 2)
                                                                            Em7 Am7 Em7
                                                                        D
                                                                 See a new beginning rise behind the sun
                                                                We can't never catch up to them as fast as we run
```

Acordes

