

Marina And The Diamonds - Are You Satisfied

```
If I want to pack up and run away
                                                                    Am
                                                                                 Em
                                                            It's my business if I feel the need to
I was pulling out my hair
                                                            Smoke and drink and swear
The day I cut the deal
 Am Am
                                                            It's my problem , it's my problem
Chemically calm
Am C G
Was I meant to feel happy?
                                                            If I feel the need to hide
                                                                  Am Em
But my life was just about to change
                                                            And it's my problem if I have no friends
                                                            And feel I want to die
One life pretending to be
                                                            Are you satisfied with an average life?
The cat who got the cream
                                                                G Am C F C G
Oh, everybody said "Marina is a dreamer"
                                                            Do I need to lie to make my way in life?
                                                             G Am C F C G
                                                            Are you satisfied with an easy ride?

G Am C F C G
Once you cross the line, will you be satisfied?
People like to tell you what you're gonna be
It's not my problem if you don't see what I see
  Em G
                                                            Am Em G F Am Em G F
And I do not give a damn if you don't believe
                                                            Saaad inside ... innnn this life ... Unsatisfied, praying Am Em G F Am Em G F Em
                 Fm
                                                            Saaad inside ... innnn this life ... Unsatisfied, waiting
My problem is my problem:
That I never am happy
                                                            Are you satisfied with an average life?
   Am
It's my problem , it's my problem
                                                                G Am C
                                                                                  F C
                                                            Do I need to lie to make my way in life?
Oh, how fast I will succeed
                                                                 G Am C F C G
                                                            Are you satisfied with an easy ride?
 {\sf G} {\sf Am} {\sf C} {\sf F} {\sf C} {\sf G}
  G Am C
Are you satisfied with an average life?
                                                            Once you cross the line, will you be satisfied?
    G Am C
Do I need to lie to make my way in life?
                                                            Are you satisfied?
                                                                 G
                                                            Are you satisfied?
High achiever don't you see
                                                            Are you satisfied?
Baby, nothing comes for free
                                                                   Em G
              Am
They say I am a control freak
                                                            Are you satisfied?
        C
Driven a greed to succeed
                                                            Are you satisfied?
Nobody can stop me
                                                            Are you satisfied?
Cause it's my problem
                                                            Are you satisfied?
                                                                Em
                                                            Are you satisfied?
```

Acordes

