Marina And The Diamonds - Can't Pin Me Down

```
Tom: A
                                                    Pre-Chorus:
                                                                     D
                                                                 Bm
                                                                                   G
                                                       Em
(com acordes na forma de
                                     G)
                                                    I am never gonna give you anything you expect
                                                                     Em
Capostraste na 2ª casa
                                                     C
                                                                                  Bm
                                                                                                  G
                                                    You think I'm like the others but You need to get your eyes
Chorus (I):
 D
                Em
                                                    checked
You can paint me any colour
                                                    D Em Bm
 Bm G
                                                    Yeah,
And I can be your clown
                                                    D Em G
But you ain't got my number
                                                    yeah
 Bm G
                                                    Chorus (Variation II):
No you can't pin me down
                                                        Bm
                                                    You can paint me any color
   D Em Bm G
Yeah you can't pin me down
                                                     Em G
                                                    And I can be your clown
   D Em G
Yeah you can't pin me down
                                                    Bm D
But you ain't got my number
Verse I:
Em
                                                        Em G
                                                    No you can't pin me down
Now I got your back up
                                                       D Em G
                                                    Yeah you can't pin me down
Bm
    G
What do you not like
                                                         D Em G
                                                    Yeah you can't pin me down
        Em
D
Do you think I'm stuck up
 Bm G
                                                    Ponte:
Cause I'm always picking fights
                                                                 Rm
                                                    Fm
                                                    I could be your sister
D
              Em
                       Bm
                                  G
You might think I'm one thing but I am another
                                                                  G
D Em
You can't call my bluff
                                                    I could be your mother
                                                    Fm
                                                              Bm
 Bm G
                                                    I could be your neighbour
Time to back of motherfucker
                                                    Α
                                                                  Α
                                                    I could be your lover
Pre-Chorus:
                                                    Em
                                                             Bm
 Em Bm
                                                    Do you like my body
                          D
                                   G
Do you really want me to write a feminist anthem
                                                    Α
                                                                G
                                                    Do you like my mind
           Em Bm
  C
                                     G
I'm happy cooking dinner in the kitchen for my husband
                                                                Bm
                                                    Em
                                                                             Α
D Em Bm G
                                                    What is it that you are having trouble to define?
Yeah,
D Em G
                                                    Pre-Chorus:
                                                      Em Bm
veah
                                                                        Α
                                                                                   G
                                                    I am never gonna give you anything you expect
Chorus (Variation II):
                                                     Em
                                                                      Bm
                                                                                   Α
                                                    You think I'm like the others, boy you need to get your eyes
 Bm G
You can paint me any color
                                                     D Em Bm G
Em G
And I can be your clown
Bm D
But you ain't got my number checked
                                                     D Em G
                                                    checked
Em G
No you can't pin me down
                                                    Chorus (II):
                                                                   G
                                                          Bm
   D Em G
                                                    You can paint me any colour
Yeah you can't pin me down
                                                       Em
                                                                     G
                                                    I can be your russian doll
  D Em G
Yeah you can't pin me down
                                                     Bm D
                                                    But you ain't got my number
Verse II:
Em
                                                        Em
                                                                     G
                                                    No, you can't make me small
You ain't got me sussed yet
                                                        Bm G
Bm G
                                                    You can paint me any color
You're not even close
                                                      Em G
                                                    And I can be your clown
Bm D
But you ain't got my number
D
         Em
Baby it's the one thing
Rm
       G
That I hate the most
                                                        Em G
                    Bm
                                                    No you can't pin me down
D
    Em
                                 G
All these contradictions pouring out of me
                                                       D
                                                               Em G
                                                    Yeah you can't pin me down
        Em
                     Bm
D
                            G
Just another girl in the 21st century
                                                        D Em G
                                                    Yeah you can't pin me down
```

Acordes

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br