

Marina And The Diamonds - Guilty

Tom: Bb

I was dreaming something dark, hiding body parts
A broken dog, a broken leg, I left it cold, I left it dead
Oh I'm a guilty one and I know what I have done
Yeah, I'm a troubled one and I won't be forgiven

Guilty on the run and I know what I have done
Guilty on the run and I'm never forgiven

I was just a kid that you could not forgive
Because it's harder
I was just a kid and all I really wanted
Was my father

Killed a dog so smart and rare, touched his techni-coloured hair
I left it bruised and black and lame, I left it running full of shame
Oh I'm a guilty one and I know what I have done
Yeah, I'm a troubled one and I won't be forgiven

Guilty on the run and I know what I have done

Guilty on the run and I'm never forgiven

I was just a kid that you could not forgive
Because it's harder
I was just a kid and all I really wanted
Was my father

Spent years singing to forget, (to forget)
I've spent years singing "no regret"
Then suddenly it all becomes clear
I've been sorry all these years

I was just a kid that you could not forgive
Because it's harder
I was just a kid and all I really wanted
Was my father

Guilty on the run and I know what I have done
Guilty on the run and I'm never forgiven
Guilty on the run and I know what I have done
Guilty on the run and I'm never forgiven
