And I could treat you better but I'm not that smart
Em                      D
When it comes to love, you're an easy fight
Am                  C
A flower in a gun, a bird in flight
Em                    D
It isn't fair and it isn't right
Am                 C
To lead you on like it's all alright

It's difficult to move on when nothing was right and nothing's wrong
Em                        D
You still can't look me in the eye
       Am                                   C
Cause you've been bitten once and now you're twice as shy
Em              D           Am
I've had my share of beautiful men
                       C
But I'm still young and I want to love again

Babe, I'm gonna ruin you if you let me stay

It doesn't feel right and it doesn't feel fair
         Em                            D
When I'm planning to move on and you're still standing there
Am                         C               Em

I'm a ruin
