

Marina And The Diamonds - Philosopher My Arse

tom:
 [Primeira Parte]
 Your theories, your beliefs
 And the way you preach for peace
 It sounds like vomit to my ears
 Woah, daddy likes to teach
 Counts for the muttered words you like to speak
 But it sounds like vomit to my ears

[Refrão]
 Let me fall and kiss your feet
 Everybody knows they're cleaner than your lips
 I'm not easy to defeat
 I know, I know when something's amiss
 I know, I know when something's amiss
 I know, I know when something's amiss
 Something's amiss

[Segunda Parte]
 Philosopher my ass
 Your words leave your mouth pretty fast
 And it sounds like vomit to my ears
 I lie in the safety of your bed
 Whilst Bob Marley goes straight to your head

How can you compare yourself to this man?
 Your whole life's a scam
 [Refrão]
 So let me fall and kiss your feet
 Everybody knows they're cleaner than your lips
 I'm not easy to defeat
 I know, I know when something's amiss
 I know, I know when something's amiss
 I know, I know when something's amiss
 I think I know when something's amiss

[Ponte]
 Don't, don't cheat me, don't you cheat me
 Don't you think you can fucking lie to me, yeah

[Refrão]
 'Cause I won't fall and kiss your feet
 Everybody knows they're cleaner than your lips
 I'm not easy to defeat
 I know, I know when something's amiss
 I know, I know when something's amiss
 Ooh, I know, I know, I know when something's amiss
 Something's amiss
 Something's amiss
