

Mark Knopfler - Sailing to Philadelphia

A tom:

I'm Jeremiah Dixon I am a Geordie boy Gbm a glass of wine with you, sir And the A ladies I'll enjoy D All Durham and Northumberland E Is measured up by my own A D E hand D It was my fate from birth D To make my mark upon the earth Eadd9 Gbm He calls me Charlie Mason A stargazer am I It seems that I was born A To chart the evening sky D They'd cut me out for baking bread E A D E But I had other dreams instead A This baker's boy from the west D country Eadd9 D Would join the Royal Society

[Refrão]

A E Gbm D A We are sailing to Philadelphia Dbm Bm E A world away from the coaly Tyne Dbm Gbm D Gbm Sailing to Philadelphia E To draw the line D E A A Mason-Dixon Line

Gbm Now you're a good surveyor, Dixon But I swear you'll make me mad A D E The West will kill us both You gullible Geordie lad You talk of A D E Liberty E How can America be free A D E A D E Geordie and a baker's boy D Eadd9 In the forests of the Iroquois Gbm Now hold your head up, Mason See America lies there A D E The morning tide has raised The capes of Delaware Come up and feel the D E A D E A D sun A new morning has begun Another day will make it clear D Eadd9 Why your stars should guide us here

[Refrão]

A E Gbm D A We are sailing to Philadelphia Dbm Bm E A world away from the coaly Tyne Dbm Gbm D Gbm Sailing to Philadelphia E To draw the line D E A A Mason-Dixon Line

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

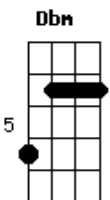

© ukulele-chords.com

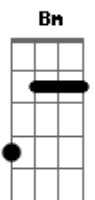

© ukulele-chords.com

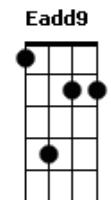

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com