Wake you up
In the middle of the night to say

E                         B                 Gb
Take all that I have. I'll give it all away just to get you back.

       Abm                     Gb
I try to stay away, but you can't forget
