I woke up old today and so in pain

Bm D E
I have to talk about things I can't explain

Bm D E
I am feeling freeze and cold and about to explode

I try so hard to breathe but the air is gone

Bm D A E
I need to breathe, to run and fly away

Bm D A E
I am feeling suffocated, trapped and afraid
Bm D A E
I need a dream, to take my fears away
Bm D A E
I'm running out of time, so shake me to inhale

Bm D E
I want to scream until I have no voice
Bm D E
I need to cry, to laugh, to feel a noise
Bm D E
I'm feeling bold and cold and about to explode
Bm D E
I try so hard to breathe and the fear is gone
