

Marvin Gaye - Just To Keep You Satisfied

```
Farewell my darling
               tom:
                                                                   G#7M
                                                                                            Fb7M
               Fh
                                                    Eb7M
       G#7M
                                                              Maybe we'll meet down the line
You were my wife, life, my hopes and dreams
  Fm7
                 Gm7
For you to understand what this means
                                                              (Ooh baby) It's too late for you and me
           G#7M
                                                                                     Fb7M
I shall explain
                                                              It's too late for you and I
                                                                                Gm7
                                                              Much too late for you to cry
I stood all the jealousy all the bitching too
                                                                                G#7M
                                                              It's too late for you and me
Yes I forgot all once in bed with you
                     Gm7
Ooh darling how could we end up like this
                                                              Much too late for you and I
                                                                                Eb7M
Ooh baby let me reminisce
                                                              It's too late for you and me
                                                                                Gm7
G#7M
                                           Fb7M
                                                              Much too late for you to cry, baby
And when we ooh we stopped the hands of time
                                                                  G#7M
    Fm7 Gm7
                       Cm7
                                                              Oh, we tried
You set my soul on fire my one desire was to love you
                                                              God knows we tried
And think of you with pride and to keep you satisfied
                                                                       Eb7M Fm7
   Eb7M Fm7 Gm7 Cm7
                                                              Now it's too late
Ooh baby, ooh baby
                                                                  Gm7
G#7M
                                                              To live and learn
                                                              G#7M
We could not bear the man's astray
                                                              Oh, it's too late, baby
                                                                                Eb7M
Leave you I never meant to
                                                              It's too late for you and me
G#7M
                                                              Gm7
                                                              Much too late for you to cry
Now you see how much you hurt me
G#7M
                                                              G#7M
But if you ever need me I'll be by your side
Eb7M
        Fm7
                                                                  Eb7M
                                                                              Fm7 Gm7 Cm7
Though the many happy times we had
                                                              It's much too late
                                                              G#7M
                  Cm7
Can never really outweigh the bad
                                                              Oh, well
                                                                                       Eb7M
                                                              All we can do, is we can both try to be happy
I never loved nobody like I loved you baby
                                                              [Final] G#7M
                              Eb7M
Now it's time for us to say farewell
```

Acordes

