

Mary Hopkin - Knock Knock Who's There

Tom: D
Intro: Gbm A D A

Gbm A
Tears of rain run down my window pane
D
I'm on my own again, believe me, sorrow
Gb Bm
Sit and dream of how things might have been
Em A
And as I close my eyes, I get the strangest feeling

D G
Knock knock, who's there
A D
Could this be love that's calling
Bm Gbm Em A
The door is always open wid--e
D G
Knock knock - who's there
A D
Now as the night is falling
Gbm Em D
Take off your coat and come inside

Gbm A
Climb the stair and then I say a prayer
D
For someone who could share my situation
Gb Bm
But instead as I lay down my head
Em A
I have to leave it all to my imagination

D G
Knock knock, who's there

A D
Could this be love that's calling
Bm Gbm Em A
The door is always open wid--e
D G
Knock knock - who's there
A D
Now as the night is falling
Gbm Em D
Take off your coat and come inside

Gbm A
Lah-la-lah, la-la-la, lah-la-lah
D
La-la-la, lah-la-lah, la-la-la-la-lah
Gb Bm
Lah-la-lah, la-la-la, lah-la-lah
Em A
La-la-la, lah-la-lah, la-la-la-la-lah---h

Gb Bm
Sit and dream of how things might have been
Em A
And as I close my eyes I get the strangest feeling
D G
Knock knock, who's there
A D
Could this be love that's calling
Bm Gbm Em A
The door is always open wid--e
D G
Knock knock - who's there
A D
Now as the night is falling
Gbm Em D
Take off your coat and come inside

Acordes

