Well, some things in this world you just can't change
Some things you can't see until it gets too late
[Chorus]
                                                                          В
Baby, baby, baby when all your love is gone
                                                                                         D A
Who will save me from all I'm up against out in this world
                                                                Let that city take you down, yeah
                                                                 For god sakes turn around
And maybe, maybe, maybe

You'll find something that's enough to keep you
                                                                 [Chorus]
But if the bright lights don't receive you
You should turn yourself around and come on home
I got a hole in \operatorname{\mathsf{me}} now
                                                                And maybe, maybe, maybe
I got a scar I can talk about
                        B (B,C ) Dbm
She keeps a picture of me
                               in her apartment in the city
But some things in this world
Man, they don't make sense
                                                                 (E A )
                                                                 Yeah, come on home
Some things you don't leave until they leave you
                                                                Baby, baby, baby, baby
And then the things that you miss, you say
                                                                 Come on home
                                                                 Yeah, come on home
[Chorus]
                                                                 Yeah, come on home
                                                                 Yeah, come on home
                                                                Baby, baby, baby, baby
Baby, baby, baby when all your love is gone
                                                                Come on home
